This two-day class is designed to kick off candidates' preparation process for the 2003 CISA exam, which is scheduled for JUNE 14, 2003. While the course will not entirely prepare you to sit for the exam, it will introduce many of the concepts and vocabulary covered on the exam.

The review course will be taught by several Certified Information Systems Auditors. In addition, each of our instructors has strong backgrounds in information systems and/or information systems auditing.

The primary deliverables of this course are:

- Coverage of the CISA review course – designed by ISACA
- Hard copy of slide presentations
- Tips and strategies from each instructor as to effective ways to both prepare and take the CISA exam
- Continental breakfast and Lunch will be provided (sorry, no happy hour)

Suggested course pre-requisites:

- Visit <http://www.isaca.org/cisa.htm> and register for the CISA exam (deadline is 4.2.2003)
